NEW YORK, June 1.- The sessions of the Mazet Committee to-day were noticeable chiefly for two points-one the turnin which the witnesses had treated He demanded the protection of the committee, and announced his intention of bringing Captain Price before the comof bringing Captain Price before the com-mittee to make him prove the charges he made yesterday against Mr. Moss. Du-ring this heated appeal from the commit-tee's counsel, Dr. O'Sullivan, who appears for the city departments, frequently in-terrupted, and in intense anger Mr. Moss demanded that Dr. O'Sullivan be denied the privilege of participating in the pro-ceedings. Mr. Mazet upheld Mr. Moss and Dr. O'Sullivan was rebuked, but was allowed to remain in the committee-room. The evidence regarding the flagrant existence of the worst forms of vice was given by two of Mr. Moss's agents. It estab-lished the fact that under the eyes of the police there were running on the Bowery the vilest of resorts, patronized nightly by persons of the lowest social standing.

VIRGINIA LAND WARRANTS.

Notice to Holders Regarding Action of Congress Limiting Payment.

WASHINGTON, June 1.-The Secretary of the Interior is preparing to give notice to the holders or owners of outstanding of Virginia for military services during the Revolutionary war, of the action of Congress at the last session, limiting the next forward step of humanny. Following Mr. Aitgeld, Mr. Fred. Williams, of Massachusetts, spoke on "The Money of the Constitution." twelve months. A large number of these warrants-were issued to soldiers and seamen, and the National Government assumed their payment by agreeing to exchange public land scrip for them at the rate of $1.25 per acre. Many have been presented in past years, but there is still an indefinite number outstanding. Under the terms of the new law, if they are presented to the Secretary before the 3d of Single Price of the Secretary before the Secretary before ports of the President and of the Officers-Services Last Night.

The conference of the Atlantic District of the German Evangelical Synod of North America held two sessions yesterday and transacted much routine bus-up, chief of which were the annual report of the president and the report of the Committee on Reports of General

THE WORK YESTERDAY. The conference convened at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in the auditorium of St. John's Evangelical church, with a large audience in attendance.

The devotional services were conducted by Rev. J. Burkhardt, after which the President, Rev. Edward Fuhrmann, declared the conference ready for business. The Committee on Credentials reported through its chairman, Rev. William Batz, that there were lay delegates present thus far representing twenty-two congregations. Besides these, there are many ninisterial delegates in attendance. President Fuhrmann then submitted his annual report, which was listened to with deep interest. It commented most fa-vorably upon the fine work done during the year, showing the growth of the dis-trict during the year. The report showed that there had been many changes in the different fields during the year. It also contained many suggestions as to the carrying on of the work of the district. These will be acted upon later in the

At this point a letter of fraternal greeting from Rev. Dr. J. Zimmermann, of Burlington, Ia., president of the General Synod, was read.

HOME MISSION WORK.

Rev. E. Lang, of Troy, N. Y., chairman of the Committee on Home Missions, pre-sented the annual report of that body. sented the annual report of that body. It showed that the state of this work is now most flourishing. The district now supports, in whole or in part, the following churches: Zlon, New York city; St. Mathews, Carlstadt, N. J.; Bloomfield, N. J.; Harrison, N. J.; Irvington, N. J.; Waynesboro', N. J.; Essex Park, N. J.; New Orange, N. J.; East New Market, Md.; Cambridge, Md., and the Immigrant Mission, Baltimore. Mission, Baltimore.

The report was referred to the committee, to be acted on later.

A SURVEY OF THE WORK. Committee No. 2 on Reports of Officers of the General Synod presented a report that gave an excellent survey of the work of the year in digested form. The report was read by the chairman, Rev. E. J. Schmidt, at Scranton, Pa. It re-ferred to the excellent condition of the college at Elmhurst, Ill., and the Theological Seminary at St. Louis, Ti ficers of these institutions were gratulated and urged to continue in their aithful work.
There are now three parochial schools in the bounds of the district. The re-port recommends the establishment of Saturday and vacation schools. Saturday and vacation schools.

Regarding the report of the general treasurer, the report of the committee showed that not only had all current expenses been paid, but that the standing debt had been reduced $1.642.58. The congregations are asked to contribute liberally to the fund to be used in carrying on the work of the conference.
